ISAAC: (throwing toys into a box—saying “bye bear, bye cat, etc.” as throws them in.)

KATHIE: What are you doing with all your old toys?

ISAAC: I am giving them away to some kids that don't have any toys.

KATHIE: Why would you want to give away your toys, Isaac?

ISAAC: Well, I just had a birthday and got lots of new toys, and my mom said it would be a good idea to give some other kids toys that don't have any. Besides, Jesus had a generous heart, and I want to have a generous heart too!

KATHIE: Aren't you sad to be giving away all your toys?

ISAAC: Actually, I am happy! I feel good knowing I am giving to kids that will be happy to get some toys! The Bible says that God loves a cheerful giver. It's in 2 Corinthians 9:7! That means He loves it when we give with a happy heart!

KATHIE: Well, I guess you are right. I think I want to try to have a generous heart. Actually, I have so many toys, they don't all fit on my bookshelf! Maybe I will go get some and add to your pile.
