

NEAT HEART SKIT OR PUPPET SHOW

Materials: audio script cued, script for puppeteers, boy and girl puppets, random clothes, toys, banana peel, and stage/table

ISAAC: (comes to the door) DING DONG

KATHIE: (answers door) Oh, hey Isaac.

ISAAC: You ready to play ball with me?

KATHIE: Yeah, I just need to find my shoes. I know they are here somewhere. (Leans over and rummaging through a bunch of things. See clothes, toys, banana peel thrown up as she is looking.)

ISAAC: Wow, Kathie. Do you ever clean your room?

KATHIE: (comes up for a second) Nah, that's too much work. (bends down again) They have to be here somewhere. (things are still flying up as she looks for her shoes)

ISAAC: Well, maybe you should try. I think if everything in your room had a place, then you would be able to find your stuff when you needed it. Did you know that the Bible even talks about being neat?

KATHIE: (looks up at Isaac) Really?

ISAAC: Yes, the Bible says, "Everything should be done in a way that's right and orderly." 1 Corinthians 14:40

KATHIE: "Everything should be done in a way that's right and orderly." 1 Corinthians 14:40?

ISAAC: That's right, Kathie. If you put your shoes always in your closet, then you always know where they are. So, when you need them, you will know just where to
